Wanted.

We want one copy each of the FREE PRESS of Nov. 17, and Jan. 19, and two copies of Feb. 23. We shall be glad to make a suitable compensation to any one who will hand them to us.

SINGLE copies of the FREE PRESS with or without wrappers, for sale at the office, price five cents.

Personals.

Miss Thrall has gone to Lockhart.

Maj. Nance and Col. Sledge, were in town on yesterday.

Rev. Mr. Garret has removed to Lockhart, where his work is for the coming year.

We learn that the condition of Maj. Ragsdale has not materially changed for some weeks.

Young Mr. Harvey is thought to be somewhat better.

Mr. Rockwood is just recovering from a protracted illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Younger, of Austin, visited this place last week, stopping with Mrs. Alyea.

We learn there is to be a wedding on the Rio Blanco on Saturday.

J. R. Williamson has just returned from a trip to the Rio Grande, where he has been buying horses.

The death of M. Kriesle, the furniture dealer of Austin, well known here, took place this week.

J. Ross Brown has sold out his stock of goods to parties from Eastern Texas who will remove it.

A deputy county clerk has lately appeared on the scene a short distance out on the San Antonio road—a ten pounder.

Mr. Ruffini, the architect, promises us for publication soon a description of his design of our new court house.

Mr. Giesen will utilize the stone of the old court house in building to and enlarging his store house. It will be about the size of Malone's.

Our worthy young friend, Mr. W. P. Irion "opens the ball" with our first announcement. The ice being thus fairly broken the FREE PRESS hopes to welcome many more announcements of candidates to its columns.

We happened this week at the residence of W. C. Mullins, the first time since the completion of his new dwelling. It is both complete and elegant. Mr. Hill was the builder.

B. A. Scofield, late of Palmyra, Mo. is stopping at Rev. Mr. Killough's which prospecting on a farm. He has distressing news from his family in Mo.—of the serious sickness of two of his boys, and the death of his infant child.

Our venerable fellow-citizen, Mr. Phillips late from Arkansas, showed us a sample of mineral which he picked up in the mountains near this place, which to our untrained eyes seemed as promising as some of the specimens we have seen on exhibition from Llano.

We were favored to be present at a very pleasant occasion at the residence of Mr. Prescott on yesterday—a birthday dinner given in honor of our friend and former "official" neighbor, Mrs. Sarah Nance. Besides the family of Mr. Prescott, Mr. and Mrs. Gid Johnson, Mrs. Alex. McGeehe, and Elder Hatcher were present. After noticing the elegant appointments of the parlor, evidencing the good taste of the lady of the house, Mrs. Prescott, we were called out to dinner, which bore equally high testimony to her culinary skill, being first class in all respects. We enjoyed a pleasant chat with our friends Mrs. Nance, and Mrs. Johnson, who seem almost like "home folks" to us. We are glad to learn that Miss Jo. is expected here ere long. All departed pleased, and wishing many happy returns of the day to Mrs. Nance.

FIFTY barrels sugar just received at HINZIE'S.

REFERRING to the notice of dissolution of partnership of Eppner & Nance, in the furniture business at this place, to be found in another column, we will state that the junior member of the firm, Mr. Nance, will continue the business at this place. He has weathered through a year in the business here, likes our town and people, and proposes to "fight it out on this line." He has proved himself a good enterprising business man, a square dealer and pleasant gentleman. We are glad therefore to record his resolution to remain with us.

Dissolution Notice.

The partnership business heretofore conducted under the firm name of EPPNER & NANCE has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. Chas. Eppner will attend to the settlement of all matters connected with the business at Palestine, and J. W. Nance will attend to the settlement of all matters connected with the business at San Marcos.
